In Memory of

Judith Mausner, M.D.

Judith Mausner was my close friend and colleague from the time I arrived at MCP in 1971 until her death last November. We taught, investigated, and conducted departmental business together at that time. With our spouses we often spent time together at concerts and plays, in Chinese restaurants, birdwatching or even folkdancing, which Judith and Bernard and my wife did well, and I, well, did.

We admired Judith for her intelligence, her industry and her good common sense. We here at MCP were not alone in recognizing the value of her contributions. The publication of Mausner and Bahn's "Epidemiology: An Introductory Text" in 1974 and its widespread and continued acclaim was an expression of all these qualities. Judith was a member of or a consultant to many national and local committees and commissions as well as a Member of the National Board of Medical Examiners and Chairman of its Preventive Medicine and Public Health test writing committee.

I thought I knew Judith Mausner well. Despite her declining health in the last two years I expected that she would complete work on the second edition of her text, wind up her research and leave everything neat and orderly, and she did. But I did not appreciate the modesty which may have been her most notable characteristic. It concealed so many of her good works and generous acts. Her only immodesty, which she would surely deplore, is evident in the void that she has left in the lives of her family, students, colleagues, and friends.

M.D. (to be)

Many thanks to all those who have given their love and support through the years. Special thanks to my family — my grandmother Sophia, my father Dr. Samuel, my mother Dr. Sondra, and by brother Dr. (almost) Jonathan — without whose love, understanding, encouragement, (and bank accounts) would have made this M.D. an impossibility.

For all my life I wanted to be a vet,
And here I am with another pet —
But paths of life are funny things,
Now I'm doctoring human beings.

I'm grateful for the support of my feline friend,
Numerous contributions are without end —
I couldn't have done it without Oedipuss,
Who answered my phone and cleaned up my muss.

My mother started me with Dr. Seuss,
In the world of books she turned me loose —
From primers to medical terminology,
I read and read and explored who I'd be.

My father taught me to stay alive,
With 'dedication, desire and drive'.
He also taught me the finer things —
Which had to include improving my swings.

Many thanks to my family, and friends, too
Without them this task I could not do
M.D. will now be after my name
And none of our lives will ever be the same.

No matter how marvelous our inventions, how productive our industries, how exquisitely automatic our machines, the whole process may be brought to a standstill by its failure fully to engage the human personality or serve its needs . . . #### Dirge Without Music

I am not resigned to the shutting away of loving hearts in the hard ground.

So it is, and so it will be, for so it has been, time out of mind:

Into the darkness they go, the wise and the lovely.

Crowned with lillies and with laurel they go; but I am not resigned.

Lovers and thinkers, into the earth with you.

Be one with the dull, the indiscriminate dust.

A fragment of what you felt, of what you knew,

A formula, a phrase remains, — but the best is lost.

The answers quick and keen, the honest look, the laughter, the love, —

They are gone. They are gone to feed the roses. Elegant and curled

Is the blossom. Fragrant is the blossom. I know. But I do not approve.

Most precious was the light in your eyes than all the roses in the world.

Down, down, down into the darkness of the grave

Gently they go, the beautiful, the tender, the kind;

Quietly they go, the intelligent, the witty, the brave.

I know. But I do not approve. And I am not resigned.

Harvey A. Mossman, M.D.

THANK-YOU

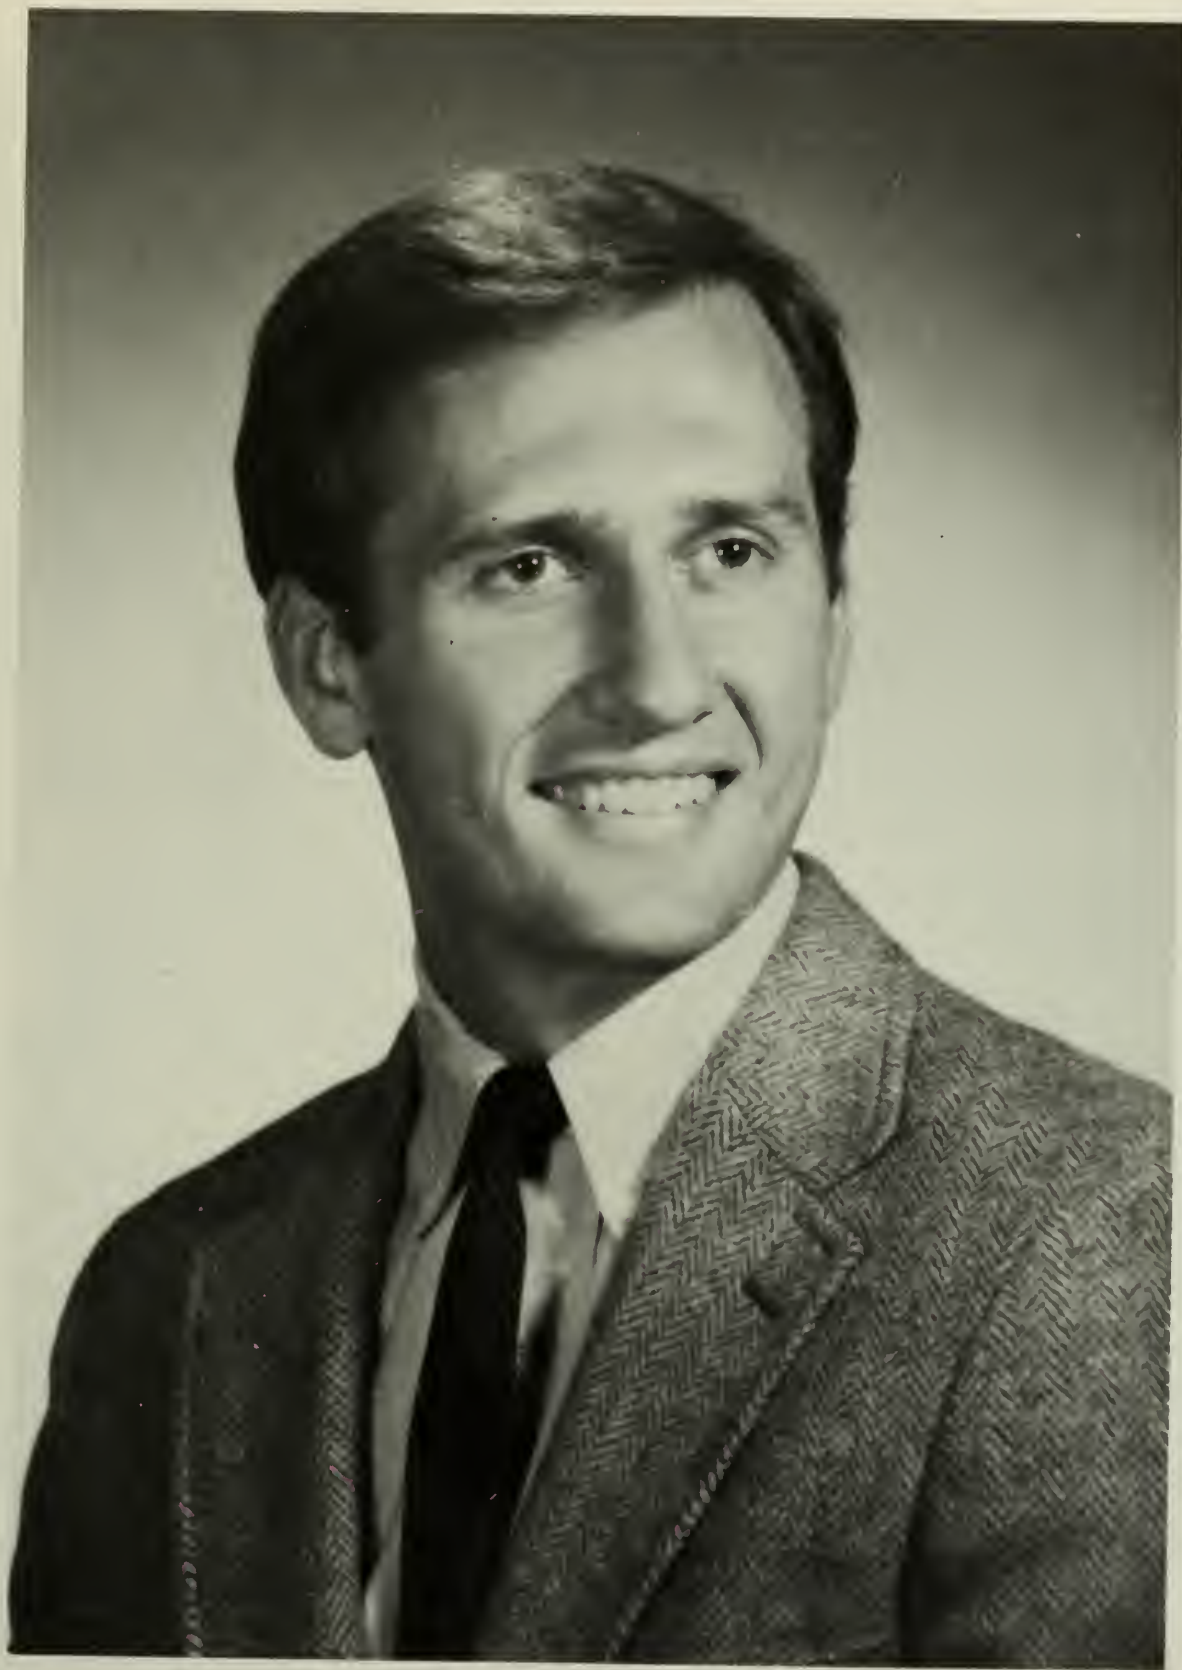

Karen Keiko Murata, M.D.

Thanks to my parents, family, and friends for their love and support through my good and bad times.

Christine M. Obermesser M.D.

Alexander Onopchenko, M.D.

Ann Elizabeth Ortmeyer, M.D.

Just a note of thanks to Mom and Dad, Aunt Mary, Peggy and Lex, and to my MCP support group — Deborah, Paul, Carole, Deb, Ken, Emily, Kerin, and of course, Mark. A special thanks to my Dad who instilled in all of us a sense of pride.

Diane Pappas, M.D.

THE MAKING OF A MCP DOCTOR:

(with sincerest apologies to all my teachers)

2. TEACH HER PATH, MICRO, ICLM AND PHARM WITH A SMILE

4. PRESTO: A M.D. MCP STYLE!

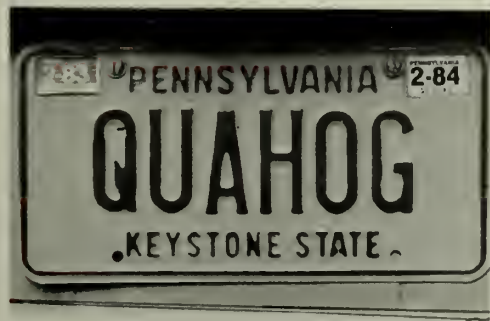

1. TAKE A YOUTHFUL BRYN MAWR GRAD

3. REMEMBER TO GIVE HER SIX WEEKS OF VACATION JUNIOR YEAR BETWEEN THIRD AND FOURTH BLOCKS

Claudia Sarah Plottel, M.D.

Deborah Marum Pressman, M.D.

To my parents,

Miriam, Phil, and Lois,

Future orchestra conductor?

and all my relatives and friends: My love and deepest thanks for all your support, encouragement, and treasured friendship.

Lumberjack?

Daniel James Rader, M.D.

Richard Brian Rafal, M.D.

To my mother and father
for their infinite encouragement,
unselfishness,
and love.

To Rachelle
for coming into my life and filling it with love.

To God
for blessing me
with so much.

Ernest J. Ricco, D.M.D., M.D.

James R. Rigas, M.D.

William J. Robertello, M.D.

In gratitude and with all my love to my parents, family, and friends for the inspiration, support, and for giving me the good sense to recognize the important things in life . . .

Studying for Genetics

From Jerusalem to the Dead Sea

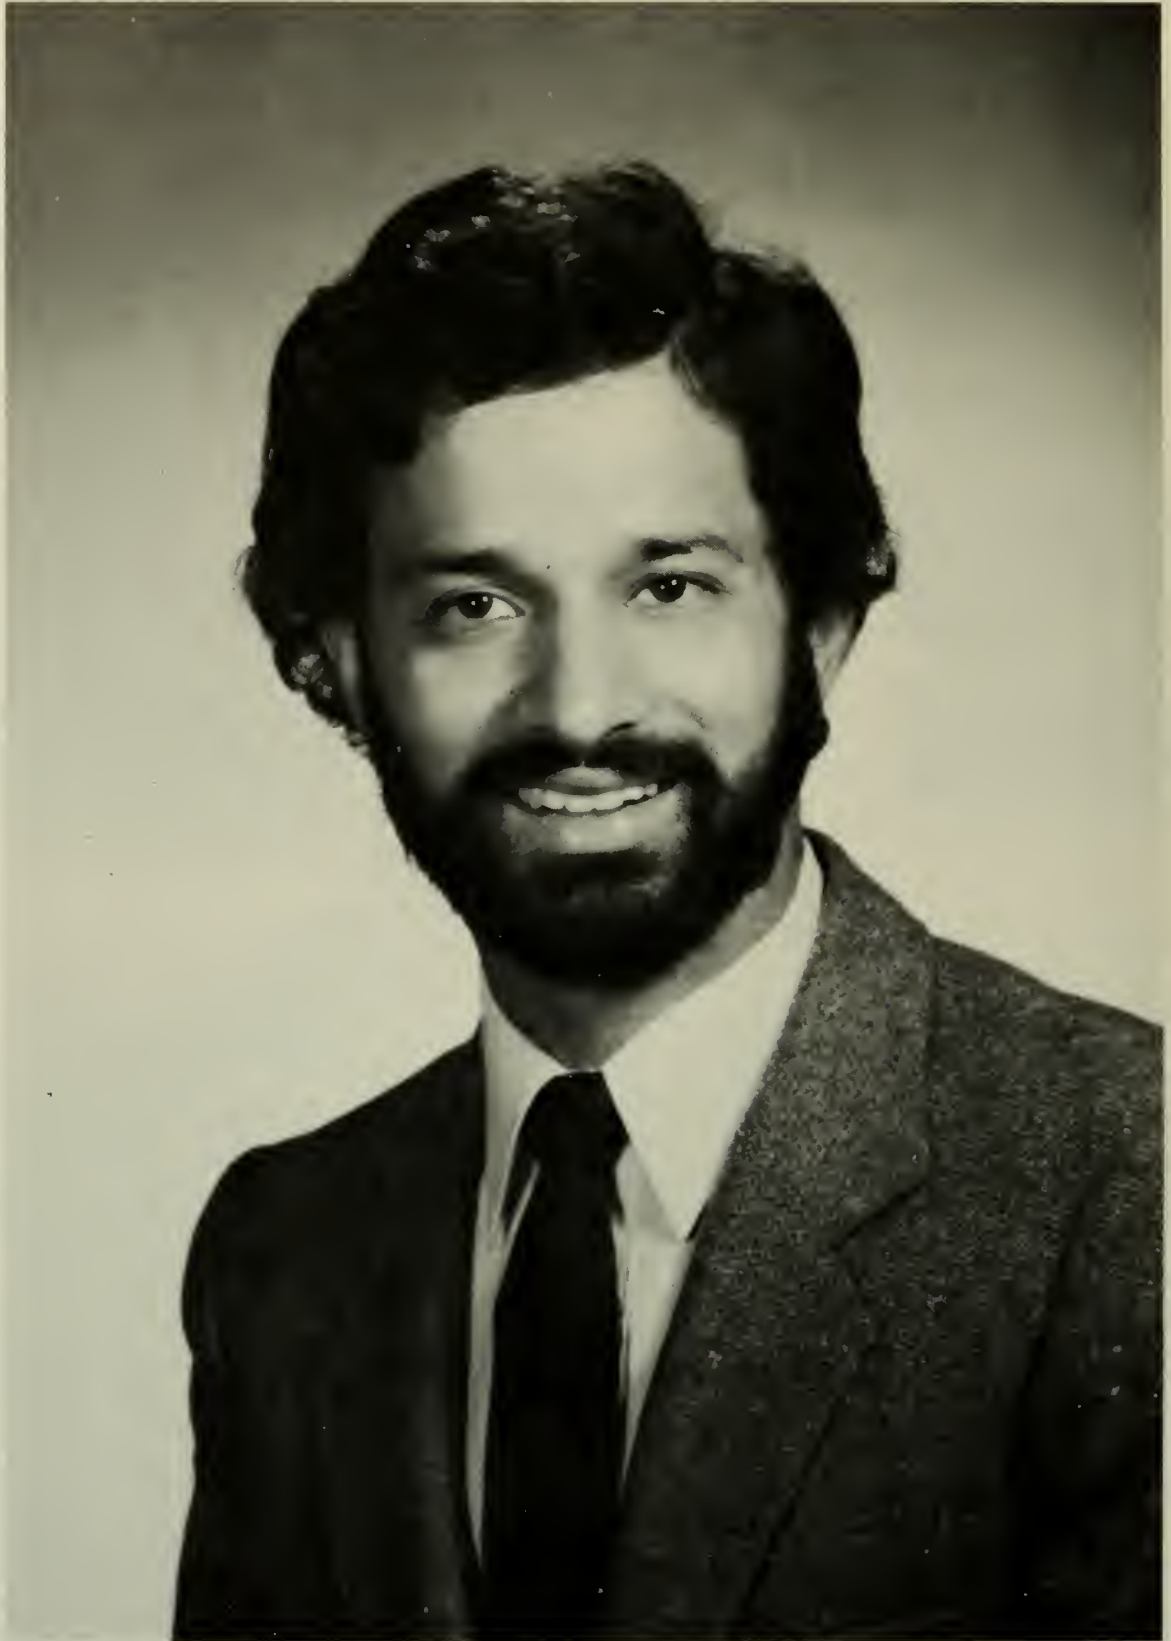

Highlights of the first two years:
attending a lecture

A theme proportion'd to my strength I choose;
A child's the subject of my humble muse.

Truly a labor of love

Hemant Sabharwal, M.D.

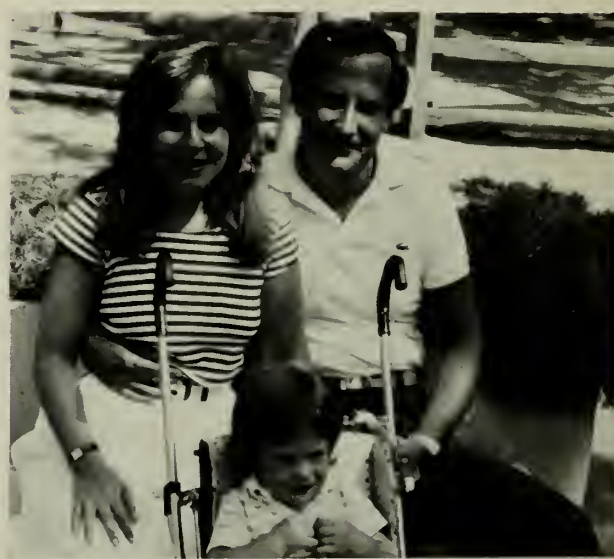

"It is essential that the student acquire an understanding of and a lively feeling for values. He must acquire a vivid sense of the beautiful and of the morally good. Otherwise he — with his specialized knowledge — more closely resembles a well-trained dog than a harmoniously developed person."

Albert Eistein

Allen Jeffrey Samuels, M.D.

Lawrence Jay Scharf, M.D.

Both the man of science and the man of art live at the Edge of mystery, surrounded by it, both always, as the Measure of their creation have to do with the harmonization Of what is new with what is familiar, with the balance Between novelty and synthesis, with the struggle to make Partial order out of total chaos.
— Oppenheim

“Great Spirits have always encountered violent opposition from mediocre minds.”
— Albert Einstein

With special thanks to my family and friends; especially to my parents, for the love and encouragement that got me here, and to my wife Carol, for the love and understanding that allowed me to finish.

Stephen L. Segrave-Daly, M.D.

Sarah Beth Shinn, M.D.

J. Michael Simon, M.D.

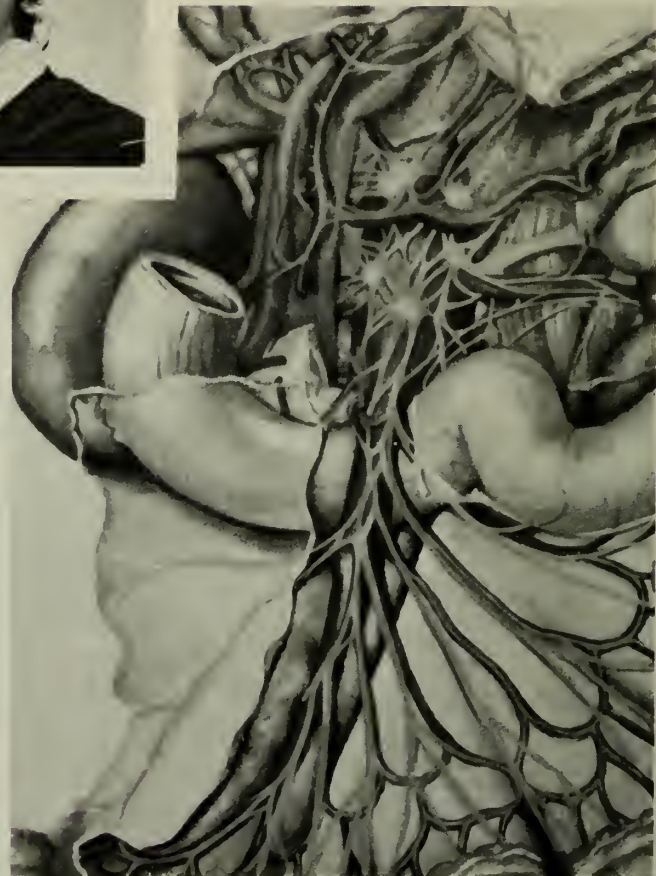

My object in living is to unite
 My avocation and my vocation
 As my two eyes make one in sight.
 Only where love and need are one,
 And the work is play for mortal stakes,
 Is the deed ever really done
 For Heaven and the future's sakes.

Change . . . Alteration, transformation of things as they are into things as they should be. A natural succession as day to night, life to death, freshman anxiety to senior apathy. Growing . . . to become more open, fuller . . . a better person. More acute, more alive, more aware . . . of change. Thank you to friends and family for your support and love.

A black and white line drawing of a scroll, a quill, and an inkwell. The scroll is unrolled, with its top edge curled. A quill pen is positioned vertically on the left side of the scroll, with its tip resting on the surface. To the left of the quill is a small, dark inkwell with a textured surface. The scroll itself is the central focus, with text written on it.

The Oath of Hippocrates

I do solemnly swear
By that which I hold most sacred
That I will be loyal to the profession of medicine and just and generous to its members.

That I will lead my life
And practice my art
In uprightness and honor.

That into whatever home I shall enter
It shall be for the good of the sick and the well to the utmost of my power
And that I will hold aloof from wrong
And from corruption and from the tempting of others to vice.

That I will exercise my art
Solely for the cure of my patients and the prevention of disease
And will give no drug and perform no operation for a criminal purpose
And far less suggest such thing.

That whatsoever I shall see or hear of the lives of man
Which is not fitting to be spoken
I will keep inviolably secret.

These things I do promise
And in proportion as I am faithful to this oath
May happiness and good repute be ever mine,
The opposite if I shall be foresworn.
